CATALOG: Jim Conner, Garamond Press, Baltimore 2, Maryland

I have always felt that the dispersion of a herd of Shorthorns was a very sad affair, but at times it is unavoidable. I feel this time has now arrived at Echo Farm. The one bright spot is that we shall still have the Shorthorn associations we have made over the years.

Various ones, especially our manager, Jack Matthews, have contributed to the successes on the following pages.

DUDLEY C. BABB

It is a known fact that Shorthorns will carry more prime beef, out of any feed lot in a given length of time than any other breed. This was the reason that influenced Dr. Babb's decision to select Shorthorns for his "Echo Farm" several years ago. He and Mrs. Babb with good planning have carefully assembled this herd. They have done well for him and they will do well for you. Here is an opportunity for you to obtain Shorthorn and polled Shorthorn seed stock that will pave the way for better beef production.

I urge you to attend and hope you will arrive early or visit the farm before the day of sale for a leisurely inspection of the cattle.

G. HARRY CANNADAY
Sales Manager
